

International Sport Federations and Organizations Logos 01

Sport is watched and played globally and the biggest sporting event is the World Cup with an astonishing 5 billion viewers globally. There are many federations and organizations which serve as a non-governmental governing body for a given sport that administer its sport at a world level and related societies. Each of these federations and organizations has its own badge motif or logo. How many such sports can you identify from the logo recreations below?

International Orienteering Federation (IOF)	International Society of Sport Psychology	International Federation of Sport Climbing IFSC	International Basketball Federation (FIBA)

Badminton World Federation	International Association of Athletics Federations (IAAF)	The Fédération Internationale de Volleyball (International Volleyball Federation)	International Cricket Council

World Athletics	European Gymnastics	World Archery Federation (FITA)	International Hockey Federation (FIH)

World Netball, previously known as the International Netball Federation and the International Federation of Netball Associations	The International Shooting Sport Federation (ISSF)	World Taekwondo Federation (WTF)	International Weightlifting Federation (IWF)

The International Gymnastics Federation (French - Fédération Internationale de Gymnastique, abbr. FIG)	UEFA – Union of European Football Associations	The International Sports Press Association, or AIPS (abbreviated from its French name, Association Internationale de la Presse Sportive)	International Swimming Federation (FINA - Fédération internationale de natation)