

UK Monopoly Board

The history of the Monopoly Board Game goes back to 1903, when American anti-monopolist Lizzie Magie created a game called The Landlord's Game. Parker Brothers later bought the game's patent and began marketing the game on 5th November 1935. The original version of the game was based on the streets of Atlantic City, New Jersey. John Waddington Ltd. obtained a license and began to manufacture the game in the United Kingdom in 1936. Victor Watson, the managing director of Waddingtons, felt that for the game to be a success in the United Kingdom, they would have to be replace American locations. So, Victor and his secretary Marjory Phillips went to London to scout out locations.

Below, is an image of a standard UK version Monopoly board, except twenty property names are missing. Can you name them?
