

Headgear 1

People often use terms like headgear, headwear, or headdress. Specifically, these words describe any clothing item covering your head. For example, people wear these garments for protection or fashion. Additionally, individuals wear them during religious or cultural rituals.

How many can you put a name to?

			